Now, how can I display a "Please wait.." message on the First activity that's waiting for user input in the Sign Up form? A: You can use AsyncTask to run the background operation. While the background operation is being executed, the UI Thread is blocked. For the UI Thread to be unblocked, the task must finish when the task goes into completed state. This code shows you how to use AsyncTask to process background tasks. AsynchronousTask.java import android.os.AsyncTask; public class AsyncTaskExample extends AsyncTask { @Override protected void onPreExecute() { // launch background task on UI thread super.onPreExecute(); // show activity or dialog } @Override protected String doInBackground(String... params) { // process in background on background thread return null; } @Override protected void onPostExecute(String result) { super.onPostExecute(result); // done in background thread // dismiss activity or dialog } } Activity1.java import android.app.Activity; import android.os.AsyncTask; public class Activity1 extends Activity { @Override 595f342e71
