The New Fantasy Action RPG By KanColle A long time ago there was a boy named "Rise". He was known as a child genius with a bright future. With his legendary speed at exceptional skill and strength. He was a hot shot who could dodge anything that came his way. One day a catastrophic event occurred. The immortal world was sent into a calamitous frenzy. During that momentary disruption of time, the child genius was shot and critically injured by a magical arrow. He fell into a temporary coma. Although Rise's body had been riddled with lethal wounds and his physical strength was shattered, Rise was able to use his otherworldly prowess to escape from death with his own will. He was cast out into the endless, infinite Lands Between. As he awakened he remembered only one thing - to finish his training as an Elden Lord. And thus the boy named "Rise" set off on a journey through the Lands Between. At first he was alone in the Lands Between and made his way through the lands as he could. He made good progress and was on the verge of finally completing his training as an Elden Lord when he came across a mysterious temple called the Temple of the Dead. Deep inside the Temple of the Dead, he discovered a white angel. She seemed to be deeply entranced by a magical mirror. He managed to recover the lost magic mirror from the powerful hand of the white angel. In the mirror, he saw his soul as it appeared in the immortal world, and his face turned pure white. This event caused the voice of the blue bird to yell out, "Rise, your soul is tainted." Rise asked, "What happened?" The voice of the blue bird responded, "You were taken to an immortal world. The immortal world is a world of illusion. Do not fall for the illusion in front of you. With this in mind, Rise returned to the white angel and asked, "Do you know where I can find the Folk of the Woodland and the Folk of the Sea? I need to become an immortal in order to rest." Before the white angel could reply, Rise heard a familiar voice in the distance. "I would like to take you into my protection and guide you through the Lands Between." The voice of the blue

Hello, I have few issues with u15. I would like to talk about one of them. When I am in the "Character Editor" (looks like a car) on the right side in the picture, it says: "/character/edit/4" BUT I have same issue when I am editing the character "Ion" in the story. It shows "character/edit/4" I think I need to test the compatibility with the older u15.1.8.152. So please can you help me with the comments. Kind regards I'm having an issue where I can't use my summoned mobs. This is still happening. I thought it had something to do with my u150 update but I can't get that update to download (its already installed). Hi. I have a question about the mob up ^. I have u150 and on the /monster/guide/4 (the fourth picture) there is label of my monster with the thickness of 0.25 instead of 0.75. This look difference I had in the last version. Can someone confirm me if this is a bug or expected? If you issue any further questions about the two new mob editing mode, I suppose we will be super glad to help. Report this post I've updated to u150, but for some reason I cannot go back anymore to edit the creature settings.
