Elden Ring Features Key:

- New Story: A new story for the Lands Between. The Lands Between is a world where story fragments are continually deposited based on your actions. It is a world where the story you tell yourself becomes reality.
- New Classes: Made from four major classes, including Knights, Mages, Thieves, and Warlords, you will have many combinations available when crafting your class.
- New Battle System: A completely new battle system where each damage amount and each status effect will make you turn over a new leaf. Every element affects a character depending on its percentage.
- New Skills: A series of skills that will allow you to specialize your character even further and take on a vital role during battles. Skills that push players toward using a combination of special abilities and combat styles will also be available.
- New Trials and Discussions: Intelligent dialogues and conversations that encourage players to think out of the box. Everything is deliberately designed in a polite, civil, and light-hearted atmosphere that adds more to the game.
- New Battle Mechanics: Advanced art is made with a critical eye and meticulous attention to the details. Both offensive and defensive skills are capable of unique and top-notch attacks, while conveying attacks that do not provide any benefit yet damage opponents while you hide.

Q: RegEx replace MultiLine StringIgnoreCase I need to find and replace these:

```
Value

... to:

New Text

The problem is that the line below the previous paragraph can be multi-line so it can look like:

... Some other text. Here is another line. ...

so i need to only replace the paragraph that is above the next paragraph that is also, but if the next paragraph does have the same text as above i need to leave it. also, i need to add a space after the date. This is what i have so far: Search Pattern = "

```
\r "; String replaced = Model.Text.ToString().Replace(SearchPattern, ""); I am not super advanced with RegEx but i am running out of ideas on how to do this. Thanks for your help. A: You could use something like this: string replacement = Regex.Replace(input, @"(
?)
\r ", "
$1
\r "); Addendum: If you want to replace the above with text

New Text

regardless of the preceding paragraph, then you can either: Regex.Replace(input, @"(
?)
\r ", @"
$1
\r "); or Regex.Replace(input, @"(
?)
\r ", "
$1
\r "); Charles E. Smith (baseball)
