A photograph of a smiling baby has gone viral, appearing on social media under the hashtag "The Most Heartwarming Photographs Of 2018." That baby is part of a family that was captured on black-and-white camera rolls taken by photographer Guido Angelo, according to a post on the Los Angeles Times' Instagram account. When Angelo took the photo in January 2018 of the baby and his two older siblings — 7-year-old Ezra and 5-year-old Leila — the family was on a mission to get clean to be baptized. "He told the oldest boy he was going to get the new car," Angelo, who is the father of all three children, told the Times. "They were dealing with the demons of lying and stealing and addiction." Let our news meet your inbox. The news and stories that matters, delivered weekday mornings. This site is protected by recaptcha. The camera rolls were taken with Angelo's film. When he used up his rolls, Angelo was left with the memory card, which he later uploaded to his Instagram account. The photographs on Angelo's Instagram and his website, GuidoAngelo.com, show a striking family of three. All three members of the family smile happily and seem to be enjoying their day. "No one's had a good day, but this kid was the happiest," Angelo told the Times. The father of the children was visibly pleased. "I've never had a picture like that 0cc13bf012
