Microsoft Windows .BIRTH Written By: Erin Phillips Read By: Stephanie Solano Erin Phillips – The Mother Erin Phillips was born on September 15, 1991. She was never completely sure what sparked her interest in babies and motherhood, but "I knew I was interested in them when I was about three years old. I liked the way that they were so concerned with what was going on around them. They wanted to know where they were going, why they were going there, what their job was on that trip, etc. They made me feel like I was important." Phillips describes her birth experience as one in which she realized "it doesn't have to be hard." "It can be such a joyful and fulfilling time in your life." During her labor, her mother

Julia was in the room to help her. Julia had given birth the same year that Phillips was born. She describes that mother-daughter experience as "I thought it was going to be quite long, but it was pretty easy, and I was satisfied with the entire experience." Her newborn experience with Ben, her son, was exciting. "I can honestly say, I loved being a mother. I loved watching him grow, and I loved having such a great support system." When Ben was a toddler, she realized her role as a mother was changing and began to enjoy her time at home. She says "It wasn't all that great, actually. I thought I was doing pretty good until the second he was born. I was in the weeds for a while." Phillips says her second child, Luke, has been a more laid-back kind of person. When her baby was a newborn, she enjoyed soaking up as much time with Luke as possible. She describes her second pregnancy as "I don't think it was that different. I just think that you can really enjoy this time in your life and be grateful for
