Q: Should I expect to be the only moderator in a specific tag? Not by chance does this tag have only one moderator among all tags on SO? A way to check that would be: ?

A: If all the moderators are either all active or all inactive, then yes, you'll be the only moderator on that tag. However, it can take several days for the mod flag to actually happen. So if you see one inactive and one active moderator, you could be waiting until the next moderator comes online after that tag is posted. That's the only reason I could think of for it to appear the way it does.

Q: Floating the whole page up and down I've never played a game that does this, but it seems like a fun idea. Is there any way I can do this? The game wouldn't have to do it constantly, it just needs to keep doing it when I move the mouse to the right and left of the screen. A: Set html attribute on body body { transform: translateX( 100px ); } Here's DEMO A note: the transform property only accepts unitless numbers. So, you'd need to use jQuery plugin to do this kind of thing. A historian's perspective on the Iraq War I interviewed me. Not only with my tape recorder, but an undergraduate research assistant and sometimes reporter named Beth Little. We talked about my own research, the study of the Iraqi War and how the various accounts of the conflict were constructed in the United States. In fact, I asked her to be more aggressive with my family, who are still my primary audience. I couldn't listen for that many hours without missing something, and Beth's ability to listen well
