While at the University of Illinois, Liliana was the Director of the Spanish and Portuguese Department and a member of the EECS Department. She worked on automating pipeline language processing for speech recognition and translation. Liliana also worked with Professor Janis Al-Saqqaf. She is currently working on developing a tool to aid in word learning by identifying if a new word is coming in a native tongue, so that she can identify a target language to learn. The Spanish & Portuguese Department is delighted to host Liliana Snchez (University of Illinois Chicago) for a talk on The challenges of formalizing Heritage speakers syntax: Lexical frequency, differential access, and transient alignments. The talk will be held on Zoom on March 10 at 4 PM CST.
