added two new cover and back covers that not only provide a unique, clean and contemporary appearance for their IKEA catalogs but have many design possibilities for your next project. You'd think by now that the word "traitor" has been well-defined by the late Merv Griffin, who has been quoted as saying (and I can't remember where I found that): "I don't care if it's a Democrat, Republican, liberal, conservative, gay, straight, female, guy, Hindu, Arab, Jew, black or white. If they lie, cheat, steal, betray or backstab we need to call them a traitor." How many times have you heard someone say, "I don't care if a Liberal voted for Trump or a Conservative voted for Hillary;

whatever they did to get him elected they are traitors.”? You could argue for all of the reasons we’ve lost our Republic that Traitors are necessary now more than ever. But what does it mean to be a Traitor? We are all Traitors by nature and by design, but I think when we use the word “traitor” we are not thinking of the way nature designed us. We have been schooled in our liberal (stupid) American way, to think our Patriotic, other person is more like us than we are like them. But our fellow Americans, by nature, are TRAITORS. America was founded on the principles that all men are created equal and are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness. And we are called upon, as Americans, to support and defend that which we believe in (and are). We are called upon, also to support our government with moral authority. This is where the problem arises. There is no such thing as a “Liberal Conservative,” and there is no “Progressive Conservative.” Both are Unamericans. I call it Unamerican because it is all lies. The spirit of the founders was to be a servant of the people, not to be a ruler over them. But the rulers of the land have all become rulers by other means and have given themselves to the wolves. The wolves have become what they serve. The spirit of America is for all men to have the same opportunity in life and to make their own way. And they can be Conservative or they can be Liberal, but they are not Traitors by nature. Traitors are not in their nature.

You have this funny video you have downloaded from the internet successfully. You push everything aside, take a deep breath, and hit Play. Almost instantly, an error message pops up and glares back at you from the media player. You switch from VLC to the traditional

Windows Media Player on your Windows PC; still, nothing works.
