we are currently working on a cover version for a new release. the original 7-inch release and the corresponding video, produced by the band, are available now on itunes, spotify and all digital platforms. we have also recorded a cover of bonzo dunch's "the devil's old dirty hands" that will be featured on the next deep cuts edition. if you have a request, be sure to send them to admin@kniferegistry.com. we would love to hear what you have in mind. our first visit with the new knife, located at the highland dallas hotel, received critical acclaim in may 2014. since then, knife has carved its way through the restaurant scene and now calls plano its second home in north texas since october 2018. a reinvention of the steakhouse experience, the chef-driven restaurant features all-natural born and raised texas beef, pork and lamb in dry-aged prime cuts and specialty cuts such as chuck flap, beef tongue and akaushi beef. knife rights was organized in 2006 to ensure a sharper future for owners of one of mankind's oldest and most commonly used tools. elsewhere in the world, many of the knives sold and used daily in the united states are illegal or severely restricted and the restrictions are growing every day. even in the u.s., efforts to demonize knives and to place more restrictions on knives are becoming more commonplace. without a dedicated grassroots organization to protect our knives, they are an easy target for those who seek restrictions on our freedoms. knife rights is that dedicated grassroots organization. click here to read about our founding. some news from the knife hq for you. in august a new magenta 2lp edition of deep cuts will be released on rabid records. if you prefer to stream music, pass this on (2005 7 rip) was released today on digital platforms; it is the version we made for our first tour in 2006. original 7 copies have been discovered and are available on the rabid store now.
