Tenerife South (GCTS) The international airport of Southern Tenerife (Tenerife Sur Reina Sofia) is, beside Tenerife North, the second airport of Tenerife, which is the largest of the Canary Islands. The airport is located in the south of the island close to the sea and at the foot of the Spain's highest mountain, the Pico del Teide. The Teide is of volcanic origin and has an altitude of 3,718 m. During the landing one can see its very impressive appearance. The approach leads in a safe distance from the sea to the foot of the volcano on the only runway of the airport of 3,200 m length, which is also suitable for larger aircraft. Throughout the year the Charter brings Spanish, German, British and Scandinavian visitors and tourists to this island. Let yourself be affected by the imposing impression of the mountain and land safely at the foot of the huge Teide. ## Simbreeze Tenerife South Full

The International Airport of Southern Tenerife (Tenerife Sur Reina Sofia), due to its prominence, is a public airport of the Canary Islands. It has a very busy passenger traffic: almost 3,000,000 of passengers per year. The airport was opened in 1978 and is located near the city of San Cristóbal. It is the second airport of Tenerife, which is the largest of the Canary Islands. It is located in the South of the island and in the end of the southernmost region of the island, the airport is the first airport in Andalusia. It is situated at an altitude of 3,718 m in the foot of the Pico del Teide. It has a runway of 3,200 metres. The airport is bordered by a coastal road with 40 kilometres. The weather conditions are completely different from those of the airport north, which makes the choice of a landing at Tenerife Sur Reina Sofia unwise for those who try. Features: The airport of Southern Tenerife is situated at an altitude of 3,718 m and is near the city of San Cristóbal, in the South of the island. It has a suitable landing-strip of 3,200 metres. This airport can also serve larger aircraft, because there are four small landing-platforms, known as hangars. For the entire year, approximately 2,500 flights per year, as well as tourist flights to and from Tenerife City. The Tenerife south airport is bordered by a coastal road with 40 kilometres. The airport welcomes about 3,000,000 people yearly. International Airport of Santa Cruz de Tenerife (Quintana Roo) or Santa Cruz de Tenerife Sur, located in the southwest of the island, is located a few kilometres north of the town of San Cristóbal de La Laguna. The airport opened in 1939, and during the last decades, has developed into an important tourist center. It offers tours to the idyllic nature of the San Juan Natural Park in the mountain range behind the airport. The airport has a landing-strip of 3,000 metres. Currently, it welcomes about 3,000,000 people a year. 5ec8ef588b
