If I sold my car at the end of the week, I would probably have about $1,200 after I paid off my loans, but I already had a pretty good system of paying off my debts without having to save up more money.Two Beltway snipers share a cell as part of a dangerous approach to get healthy Howard County shooters share a cell for safety Share with others: Two self-described "lone wolf shooters" in Howard County could not be happier with their new living arrangement. Both have moved to the county jail in Jessup to share a cell with other inmates so they will not meet face-to-face, said County Prosecutor Kevin R. Fremin. "We take them off the streets," he said. Howard County Sheriff's Office officials say the pair, who have never met, are kept apart by a double-door metal door with a mesh-covered observation window in each half. The door has multiple locks that can be locked at any time to prevent inmates from connecting. No one is permitted to peer through the window to observe the other inmates. "Their new lives are far better than the old one," said Sheriff Chris Lucas, adding that the arrangement is for their own safety and that of the other inmates. "They feel much more secure. No one is going to take advantage of them because of their situation." The two Howard County shooters are in protective custody, but are "very co-operative and they're active in the
