"Pirates 2" has opened in the midnight.The library is a place of respite, refuge and refreshment. Part of the library space is dedicated to quiet contemplation in a room with no distractions. The remainder provides quiet standing areas and bookshelves with a number of books to read or study. Three distinct open-plan areas, with separate sitting areas, open onto a communal courtyard. Much of the built-environment has been chosen to encourage restorative and serene living, the use of natural materials and limited exposure to glare. There is a large glass windows that allows most of the sunlight in, but the climate is controlled by screens and blinds. In addition to the library, The Centre has a large network of meeting spaces and public rooms for community events and seminars. Within this unique setting, students and researchers are able to organise themselves around a core of community services and activities, which in turn are supported by a strong network of academic and community partnerships. The Centre provides a homely and informal atmosphere for study and learning, attracting a steady flow of local and interstate students and researchers. The Centre can also be a safe place for visitors who are experiencing culture shock or illness, or who just want to access some respite from the bustle of the city. Facilities Learning takes place within a unique environment of open plan areas, large windows, high ceilings and natural materials. The Centre provides
